

Fasten your chin strap and take off with Ruth Elder, a woman daredevil pilot who soared into America's heart in the 1920s. In 1927, women were supposed to stay at home, mostly in the kitchen. But one woman proved she could do anything a man could do - even fly an airplane!

Author Julie Cummins will talk about her newest children's book, FLYING SOLO, along with a passel of other women daredevils, all born before 1900. Copies of her books will be available for purchase.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 with the program starting at 7pm.
