

Registrar Internship Spring/Fall 2012

The International Women's Air & Space Museum houses an extensive collection of artifacts and memorabilia focusing on women in air & space. The collection is constantly growing and we are in need of an individual with strong organizational skills to help keep our accession records and reports current and up to date.

Duties

- Maintain records of accession, condition, and location of objects in the museum's collection.
- Assist in the movement, packing, and shipping of objects to conform to insurance regulations.
- Assist in handling objects in the museum's collection.

Requirements

- Able to dedicate at least 4-6 hours a week, create your own schedule.
- History or Museum Studies students with preference given to Museum Studies students, open to Undergraduate and Graduate students.
