The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Organization to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Organization. The Organization has determined whether any tax positions have met the recognition threshold and has measured the Organization's exposure to those tax positions. Management believes that the Organization has adequately addressed all relevant tax positions and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. Federal and state tax authorities generally have the right to examine and audit the previous three years of tax returns filed.

EDUCATION

IWASM strives to serve its communities through various educational means. This includes offering:

- Children's programs: Aviation Adventures and Quest for the Stars
- Rocket Day (ages 4-12)
- WOW STEM Conference (ages 14-18)
- Dinner with a Slice of History, grant funded (adult learners)
- Virtual Programs
- Adult Speakers' Bureau Programs

In 2021, we began benchmarking educational programs against state and national standards. For the first time, we began assessing the needs of teachers and schools and strategizing how best to compliment what schools are already expected to cover in Social Studies, Science, and English-Language Arts.

For descriptions and example of educational programs offered since January 2021, visit: www.iwasm.org/wp-blog/events.

COLLECTIONS

IWASM's collection contains approximately 20,000 historical and cultural objects, photographs, archival materials, and books relating to the contributions and history of women in air and space. In addition, our reference archive holds more than 6,000 items. The earliest items in the collection date to approximately 1880 and IWASM is an actively collecting institution for contemporary collections. In total, the museum's collections document the lives and careers of women in all areas of aviation and aerospace including pilots, air traffic controllers, engineers, flight attendants, astronauts, balloonists, and more.

In August 2022, the organization was awarded a National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Preservation Assistance Grant in the amount of $9,996.00. This project will begin in November 2022 and will end in March 2023. Thanks to this funding, the museum will enhance and update its collections storage environments to ensure that items can be better accessed. One such method of access is through exhibits and to facilitate organizational research, providing educational programming, and as resources for external researchers.

Not all IWASM collections are accessible online. What are, can be found by visiting: www.iwasm.omeka.net

OUTREACH

Each year, IWASM participates as judges and as a research site for the Region 3 Ohio History Day contest. We award a special prize for student projects that relate to women in aviation, women in STEM, aviation and space history, and women in space. For information on Ohio History Day, visit: <https://www.ohiohistory.org/education/ohio-history-day/>
